Channel To Be Dredged By January

by KAREN WILTBERGER

After a two-year push to clean up a small channel north of Lake Catherine, the Antioch Twp. has finally received the OK to move forward.

Twp. Supervisor Jim Fields said the township has a federal community development grant and a green light from the Illinois Environmental Agency to remove an abundance of organic material and sediments from the Grandview Subdivision channel.

The project, which will be open for bids Nov. 14, is expected to be finished by January, Fields said.

The channel will be dredged to transfer organic material and sediments to five acres of farmland enclosed by a 3-foot berm, a quarter mile north of the channel, Fields said.

"I'm glad it's finally coming to reality," said Fields, who has been instrumental in the getting this grant as well as other grants for drainage projects for subdivisions in that area.

The complaints, Fields said, started in 1983 when residents started to smell odors from the channel.

In July 1984, the Lake County Health Department condemned the channel, saying it had a buildup of organic matter and sediment that produced an odor of hydrogen sulfide (resembling rotten eggs) when the lower strata of the water was disturbed.

Its inspection determined that the overall state of the channel was poor, characterized by increased sedimentation, stagnant water conditions and offensive odors.

According to the health department, to keep the channel clean, the township will have to dredge the channel every five to 10 years.

Another water-related project in that area, which started four years ago, is awaiting additional funds. In an attempt to finish several rain water drainage projects in surrounding subdivisions, Fields has applied for an $180,000 community development grant. He said he expects to know if it is

Antioch Man Dies Of Gun Wound

A 20-year-old Antioch man, an employee of the Lake County Sheriff's Department, died the morning of Oct. 12 in his home from a single self-inflicted gun shot wound, a sheriff's spokesman said.

Theodore Smith Jr., of 26109 W. Spring Grove Rd., Antioch, had been serving in a Work Release Program of the sheriff's department for about a year, the spokesman said.

Smith was found by his parents in his bedroom after they heard the shot.

Show Starts Homecoming Weekend At Antioch High

The 1985 Homecoming Show "Heaven" in the north gym will kick off Antioch Community High School's homecoming weekend festivities.

The show starts at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 18. The three and one-half hour program will include the presentation of the 1985 Sequoit football teams, coaches and cheerleaders.

An entertainment packed evening in the commons includes performances by the Antioch Marching Sequoit Band the award-winning pom pon squad. The student council has contracted with "The Great Pretenders," a modern show band, to provide entertainment for all age levels. An Alumni Social will be held from 9 to 11 p.m. Refreshments will be available throughout the evening.

The entire production will be offered by ticket only. Pre-sale tickets will be $3 for adults and $2 for children under 12 years of age. Tickets at the door will be $5. Tickets will be for sale in the general office of the high school and in the high school commons by student council members.

A homecoming parade will kick off Saturday's activities at 10 a.m. Float building will begin on Thursday, Oct. 17 from 4 to 9:30 p.m. On Friday, Oct. 18, students will be excused from classes to work on the floats from 8 a.m. and can work on it until 10:30 p.m.

The sites will be selected and announced to the students. Faculty supervision will be

Youths Being Sought

Two missing youths are being sought by the Lake County I-SEARCH Unit, Lake County Sheriff Robert H. Babcox has announced.

Missing are Meghan L. Holcomb, age 5, of Mundelein; and Michael R. Kiley, age 18, of Antioch.

The two have been entered into the Illinois State Enforcement Agencies to Recover Children (I-SEARCH) network which deals with missing, runaway or abducted youths, Babcox said.

Holcomb was last seen July 18, and is in the company of her non-custodial mother, Dorothy Mary McDermott, age 35. They are believed to be in a 1978 Ford Thunderbird with Illinois registration CNL336. Meghan is described as 3'8" and weighs 50 pounds, has light brown hair and brown eyes. She has a burn mark (approximately one inch in diameter) on the top of her left forearm.

Kiley is described as 5'7" and weighs 130 pounds. He has brown eyes and brown hair. He is visually impaired. Michael was last runaway or abducted youth should contact the Lake County I-SEARCH Unit at (312) 244-KIDS or the State I-SEARCH Hotline at 1-800-U-HELP-ME, Babcox added.

Anyone having information concerning the whereabouts of any missing

Program A Success

The Volunteer Lawyers Program of the Lake County Bar Assn. has been in existence for a little over a year and has been very successful in serving the legal needs of those Lake County citizens who otherwise would be unable to afford legal services.

During its first year of operating, 110 clients were served from 14 different Lake County communities and 72 lawyers volunteered their services.

Encourage To Apply For A Health Committee

Lake County residents with knowledge of or interest in the continuing development of community services in the areas of mental health, drug and alcohol abuse or development disabilities are encouraged at this time to apply for membership on the Lake County Advisory Board and Coordinating Council for Mental Health, Substance Abuse and Developmental Disabilities Services (AB/C Council).

The council serves in an advisory capacity to the Lake County Board of Health and also serves as a coordinating council for these services in Lake County.

Interested persons should call Ginny Fagen, AB/C Council coordinator at (312) 629-6704, or address inquiries to the AB/C Council Office, 2303 Dodge Ave., Waukegan, 60085.

The council attempts to maintain in its membership a balance of geographic areas of residence, racial and ethnic groups, gender, age and areas of interest. Members are representative of providers, consumers and interested citizens. At this time, the council is particularly interested in receiving applications from consumer representatives.

Community members are also encouraged to participate in council committees, which deal with single disability areas (mental health, substance abuse or developmental disabilities) or with a single area of interest common to all three disability groups (legislation, planning, grants). One does not need to be a council member to participate on a council committee.

Venita Cares, Says Clerk

Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnel has gained the endorsement of Round Lake Park Village Clerk Edith Heimos in her quest for the Republican nomination for Lake County Clerk in the March 1986 primary.

In an exclusive statement to Lakeland Newspapers, Heimos contended, "As a clerk, I have learned the importance of relating to the general public on a more personal level, and know Venita McConnel shares these views."

"Venita McConnel has the background and caring personality necessary to bring the office of Lake County Clerk to the people. It is due to her qualities that I am endorsing Venita L. McConnel for Lake County Clerk."

Currently, Heimos is serving her second term as the village clerk of Round Lake Park. Joan Hendricks, the Round Lake Heights Clerk, is also supporting McConnel's campaign for county clerk. Colleen Kasting, the president of the Municipal Clerks of Illinois, has issued a strong endorsement on behalf of McConnel's candidacy.

McConnel is engaged in a tight race for the GOP nomination for Lake County Clerk with Dist. 4 County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler of Ingleside.

The GOP nominee is expected to oppose Democratic incumbent Linda Hess in the November, 1986 election.

Candidate 'Bears' Up

Chicago Bear Defensive Back Gary Fencik gives County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler a bear hug upon being invited to her Bears vs. Packers game party at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 21, at Hoff's Columbia Bay Tavern, Rte. 59, as part of her campaign for Republican nomination for county clerk in 1986 election. The public is invited for big screen tv game action and refreshments for a $10 donation.

$1.1 Million Banquet Facility Breaks Ground

Ground has been broken for a $1.1 million, 500 seat banquet hall addition to the historic Country Squire Restaurant in Grayslake.

Designed by C.F. Tassos & Associates, the 10,000 square foot facility located at Rtes. 120 and 45 will feature three banquet rooms, a kitchen, a bridal suite and offices.

Operated by Country Squire owners William and Kris Govas, the banquet hall will run separately from the restaurant, although linked by an enclosed walkway for employees.

"We believe our area of Lake County has a need for a banquet facility of this size and quality," says William Govas. "We now will be able to accommodate large parties the restaurant could not handle and have further flexibility for hosting smaller affairs."

The banquet hall has been designed in a classic Georgian architectural style that complements the adjacent Country Squire. Elaborate gardens and water fountains will further accent the building's exterior environs.

Elegance will personify the interior decor as well, according to Tassos Chronopoulos, president of C.F. Tassos & Associates, responsible for the building's total exterior and interior design and construction.

"The decor will feature custom-designed wallcoverings and carpeting, and the entrance foyer will be highlighted by a rotunda and six-foot long chandelier," Chronopoulos explains. "We also will construct a $20,000 grand staircase that leads from the banquet room to the bridal suite."

The architecture and design of the new facility reflect the history of the Country Squire Restaurant, built originally as the stately residence of Wesley Sears of the Sears department store family.

Here, Sears entertained the cream of Chicago society in a house decorated with the finest appointments, from the hardware of wrought brass to the hand-carved woodwork on the ceilings.

The site also features an elegant 13-acre lawn complete with varieties of native and transplanted trees and a garden of 10,000 tulips and daffodils. The home was converted to the Country Squire Restaurant in 1954.

C.F. Tassos & Associates is an architectural, construction and engineering firm based in Hinsdale, with branch offices in Schaumburg and Park City, Utah.

Construction has begun on a 500-seat banquet hall addition to the historic Country Squire Restaurant in Grayslake. C.F. Tassos & Assoc. designed and will build the $1.1 million facility, which will feature a classic Georgian architectural style to complement the adjacent Country Squire. The interior will be highlighted by a $20,000 grand staircase and custom-designed wallcoverings and carpeting.

Eagle Point, Puppet Bar Meshes Fun, Good Food

by GLORIA DAVIS

Eagle Point Bar, The Puppet Place in Fox Lake is the perfect place for people who want to have a good dinner out with a lot of fun for dessert.

The success of Eagle Point is the perfect example of how in-laws can not only get along, but work well together and have a good time doing it.

Joe Gates, who had never had much to do with restaurant's and bars except as a customer, bought Eagle Point nine years ago and it was not long before his mother and father-in-law, Patricia and Adam Foelker, joined he and his wife Pam in the restaurant-lounge operation.

Some might class Adam and Joe as schauvenists since they have relegated the two women to the charge of the kitchen (a job

A particular key on the juke box, which changes from time to time, sets the puppets in action. Just imagine seeing Liberace at his piano or the Beatles swinging away at the touch of a juke box key.

But the real fun is to be found during any of the constantly running zany events that take place during the course of an evening spent at the Puppet Bar.

Some patrons can be found involved in a horse race, scurrying towards the finish line astride a stick horse, while more patriotic others are marching around waving sparklers to the strains of "God Bless America."

In keeping with the season, Eagle Point will be having two halloween parties, one for adults and the other, a free one for the children (Mom and pop are welcome, they could use the help).

The free children's party will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 27. There will be prizes for costumes, clowns, a ventriloquist, games and refreshments. Parents are welcome to help with the games.

The succulent varied specials include the locally famous giant hamburgers, the "all you can eat" shrimp, crab leg and rib feast on Wednesday, or Saturday nights and the "build your own taco" special every Thursday, as well as the Friday fish fry, all at very reasonable prices.

Spotlight

they prefer by the way) and they take care of the bar.

Besides being well-known for varied "all you can eat" specials, the other thing that draws people to Eagle Point in droves is the reason for the name of the bar, the 53 animated characters, small ones and some as tall as five feet, that are placed throughout the bar.

Absentee Voting For Nov. 5 Election Begins

"Absentee voting for the Nov. 5 Non-Partisan election has begun in the courthouse in Waukegan for all voters, except those in the Warren Twp. High School district," announced Lake County Clerk Linda Hess.

She continued, "we are awaiting a circuit court decision as to whether or not the Warren Twp. H.S. electoral board decision removing several candidates from the ballot will be upheld, so we know which ballot to prepare." A hearing has been set for Oct. 4.

Hours for voting in the county clerk's office are Monday thru Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Fridays from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Absentee voting in township and municipal offices will begin on Tuesday, Oct. 15, at the following offices throughout the county:

The township offices of Antioch, Avon, Benton, Cuba, Deerfield, Elia, Fremont, Grant, Lake Villa, Shields, Vernon, Warren, Wauconda, West Deerfield and Zion;

The village and municipal offices of Barrington, Grayslake, Gurnee, Hawthorn Woods, Libertyville, Mundelein, North Chicago, Park City, Vernon Hills and Wauconda.

"Voters should call ahead to check the voting hours at each location," noted Hess.

Voting will continue through the close of business on Nov. 4.

Requests for voting by mail can be made by calling the Absentee Voting Dept. at (312) 689-5912. "As a special service to college students, we have mailed each college in Illinois our absentee ballot application to reduce the turn-around time for student voting," said Hess.

Haley's Plea Will Add At Least 10 Jail Years

by GLORIA DAVIS

A drug investigation centered against William Haley of Antioch that has been public since spring of 1980, may reach its culmination when he is sentenced in a U.S. Federal Court in Chicago on Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Haley had been indicted early on 10 counts connected with smuggling drugs into the country and Lake County in particular.

The heaviest charge that can be made by the federal government is that of continual criminal enterprise. In coping a plea, Haley pled guilty to only one of the 10 charges, the most serious one of operating a drug smuggling ring.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Ira Raphaelson said the plea bargaining was done because Haley agreed to plead guilty to the most serious charge.

The charge was based on a series of marijuana runs resulting in Haley's arrest in Puerto Rico in 1980 when he was accused of dropping 500,00 Quaaludes and 800 pounds of marijuana from a plane into the ocean. Haley was later released without being tried on this charge.

Haley's brother John was later stopped at O'Hare Field by federal agents reportedly when marijuana dogs singled out the briefcase he was carrying.

The briefcase contained $200,000 that Haley claimed was to fund a blue grass concert in Lake County. Allegedly the dog tag meant that marijuana had been present in the briefcase previous to the O'Hare stop.

William Haley was convicted in 1984 of masterminding the smuggling of almost $500,000 worth of marijuana into Ft. Meyers, Fla., in a plane in 1982. The pilot of the plane was the key witness in the trial which netted Haley a 10 year prison sentence which he is now serving in a Florida penitentiary. The charges were also in connection with a series of drug runs made by a other people.

Haley was in Chicago for the plea hearing and will also be there for the sentencing.

The usual sentence for the charge Haley pled guilty to is a minimum of 10 years and a maximum of life imprisonment and a $100,000 fine.

In accordance with the plea bargain, Haley can receive a maximum of 15 years. The least he can serve on this charge is 10 years added to the sentence he is already serving.

Previous reports that Haley appeared in Chicago on a $250,000 bond were incorrect since bond is not available to convicted persons serving a jail sentence.

Haley's brother Clem, is presently serving a sentence on the work release program after agreeing to cooperate with federal authorities sans any testimony against his brother.

Also according to Raphaelson, any reports that other members of the large prominent Antioch family are being investigated with further indictments pending, did not come from his office and he does not know what their foundation could be.

Jaycees Plan Third Annual Haunted House

The Warren Twp. Jaycees will present the third annual haunted house from 7-10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 7-11 p.m. on Friday and Saturdays from Oct. 24-31.

The haunted house is located at 4558 Grand Ave. in Gurnee in the old firestation. Admission is $2 per person.

Everyone is asked to bring pop tops to the haunted house. For every 100 pop tops collected local can companies will donate 10 minutes of kidney dialysis time to a needy child.

Goebel Guilty In First Trial

James Goebel, a former substitute teacher for a number of Lake County schools, was found guilty Oct. 10 of two misdemeanor charges for fondling a 14-year-old girl in an empty Waukegan school classroom last February.

Another trial was scheduled for Oct. 15. Goebel, 55, of rural Fox Lake, is expected to stand trial on 10 other separate charges totaling more than 30 counts of sexually molesting children and child pornography.

Goebel was found guilty on one count of battery and one count of sexual abuse. Goebel was found not guilty of a criminal sexual abuse count involving use of force, and a second count of battery.

Meet The Candidates For Grass Lake School Board

by ARDEEN HARRIS
(312) 395-2761

Well, it's finally here! This is the opening weekend of the Grass Lake PTO Haunted House. Remember Friday, Oct. 18, is date night with two for the price of one for dates only; the doors will open at 7 p.m. and will close at ??? The house will also be open on Saturday, Oct. 19 and Sunday, Oct. 20 from 7 p.m. till ??? The first of two kiddie matinees will be Sunday, Oct. 20 from 2-4 p.m. for kids 10 and under. The donation for the nighttime performance will be $2 and the kiddie matinee will be 50 cents. This is opening weekend - are you ready? The monsters are!

Remember to mark your calendar for "Meet the Candidates Night" at Grass Lake School on Oct. 24 at 7 p.m. The candidates will have a chance to introduce themselves and the questions you submitted will be presented to them. This is a good time for those of you who do not have children in the school to meet the people who will be presenting you on the Grass Lake School Board. Be sure to attend and tell your neighbors. Those who are running for school board are: Paul Kitto, Don Fechtner, Carl Dunfrund, Mike Christopoulos, Judy Hansen, Mary Beth Walsh, Wayne Cramer, Bob Mattson, Jim Ziegler and John Handschiegel.

Grass Lake School is looking for a substitute bus driver. If anyone has experience (or wishes to gain experience) in driving a school bus, please contact the school. Both Grass Lake and Lotus schools are in need of substitute bus drivers to drive in the event of illness of the regular drivers. Stop by or call the school for more information.

The sixth-grade students at Grass Lake School will be raising funds for their class treasury by selling taffy apples again this year for 50 cents each. Order blanks will be distributed and sales will begin on Monday, Oct. 21. Sales will end on Tuesday, Oct. 29 and the apples will be delivered on Thursday, Oct. 31. They are really delicious!

Grass Lake School has requested that parents call the school within the first two hours of the day if their child is absent from school.

If the school is not called within the first two hours, they will contact the parents, either at home or at their place of employment, to confirm the child's absence. This policy will become a state-wide policy in the 1986-87 school year. With the number of child abductions being publicized, it is the intent of Grass Lake School and the State of Illinois to prevent time being lost in the event of such a catastrophe. Parents are still required to write an absence note when the child returns to school.

The school has also requested that children in grades K-5 may not attend Junior High games unless they are supervised by an adult. The games begin at 4 p.m.

Congratulations to the Kindergarten class at Grass Lake School for winning the $25 for the largest percentage of parents joining the PTO. They won with a 66.7 percent score with the fifth grade close behind with 64.3 percent. It's nice to see the Kindergarten class win with lots of new people joining PTO.

The Antioch Tru Value hardware store has donated two smoke alarms for the Kindergarten building at Grass Lake School. Some of you know it as the "Little School House." Another donation to the school was by Mrs. Nancy Dogan who contributed to the sewing class.

Howard and Eileen Stann had an enjoyable weekend entertaining friends from Apple Valley, Minn. Their house guests were Darrell, Sylvia and Dean Huls. It took 10 years for the Huls' family to finally make it south, but the wait was well worth it. Friends and neighbors dropped by to say their hellos and enjoyed old company and lots of food. By the end of their stay, the decision was made that 10 years is too long between visits and the next reunion won't be that long!

Happy birthday to Mary Edelmann who will 7 years old on Oct. 15. Mary is in Mrs. Goia's first grade class at Grass Lake School. Erica Wagner will be celebrating her day on Oct. 20. She is in Ms. Olsen's fourth-grade class. Phyllis Wagner will be celebrating her day on Oct. 24. By the way, Phyllis is Erica's mom. Leslie Bennett will be another year older on Oct. 22. She's a freshman at Antioch Community High School. Carrie Bennett will be celebrating her day on Oct. 24. Carrie's a senior at Antioch Community high school and Leslie's sister. Happy Anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Wagner who will be celebrating their special day on Oct. 20.

The Grass Lake Junior High had selected their ski committee and will be getting together with Mr. Liss to discuss dates and places to go. The Junior High usually plans three ski trips during January and February. Those students who are on the committee are: Eighth graders, Carl Campbell, Teresa Clifford and Jenny Harris. Representing the seventh grade are Deanne Olenick and Danny Romanski. The sixth grade representative is Johnny Hines.

The Viking Cheerleaders for the Viking Football league had their annual cheerleading competition on Sept. 29. Congratulations to the first place squad: Eagles Amy Hansen, Susan Ozgo, Corry Hansen, Tiffany Christopoulos, Jennifer Vandrush and mascots Tara Christopoulos and Jeannie Crippen. The other girls involved in the competition and who made the selection a really tough one are: Bears: Rachael Arnold, Rebecca Ward, Jenny Wilke, Sarah Adams, Lori Finn and mascots Mandy and Becky Wilke. Raiders: Dawn Cunningham, Heidi Hisele, Tina Marshall, Anne Kreplin, Angie Dost, and mascots Lisa Marshall and Alicia Cannon. Seahawks: Jennifer Brausam, Katherine Harris, Michelle Cardin, Aimee Kitto, Kara Cain and mascots Kelley Brausam and Lisa Priller. Congratulations to you all on a fine job and hard work.

The Lake County Cooperative Extension Service will be honoring their 4-H Leaders on Oct. 29 with a special dinner at Maravella's in Fox Lake. Be sure to send in your confirmation by Oct. 23. If you are a leader, but didn't receive your invitation, be sure to call the extension office and let them know.

The entire project is about 60 percent complete, Fields said. So far, he said, some $235,000 in grants has paid for the drainage projects for nine subdivisions surrounding Lake Catherine, Lake Marie and Channel Lake.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I kept seeing lots and lots of bumper stickers about town that read - BOB WEBER IS 50! After tracking it down I found out Bob Weber had a surprise 50th birthday party at "My Brothers Place" given by his wife JoAnn, daughter Theresa and son Matt. He was greeted by many friends and relatives making the evening very festive! The bumper stickers were a gift from Bob Wilton who proceeded to place them on the cars at the party - they is why I saw so many about town. It sounds like a fun time - JoAnn had also celebrated a birthday Oct. 18! Happy Birthday to both of you!

Another celebration coming up is Ray and Donna Anderson's 25th Wedding Anniversary. For everyone interested in celebrating with them, their son Al is hosting an Open House at the Limerick Lounge Sunday, Oct. 20 beginning at 1:30 p.m. That ought to be a good time so don't miss it! A toast to the next 25!

I am so happy to see those Sequoit victories! It makes me all the more excited about the Homecoming Parade on Saturday at 10 a.m. We are all real proud of you. Everyone will be out to see you do it again on Saturday!

Have you noticed all of the commotion at The Vault? The plans sound like it is going to be beautiful - I can't wait to see the finished product. I am very curious as well to see what the old Payless building will look like when those holes are filled in. It is so good to see all of this remodeling and decorating with new ideas! This village is hoppin'!

Best wishes and good weather go out to John Haley and Christi Upham on their wedding Friday evening!

Kiesgan Confirms Rep. Candidacy For Board

by JOHN STEINKE

In an interview with Lakeland Newspapers, Charlotte Kiesgan confirmed that she will seek the Republican nomination for the Lake County Board from Dist. 4 in the 1986 March primary. Dist. 4 includes Antioch, Avon, Grant, and Lake Villa Twp. in western Lake County.

The terms of Dist. 4 Representatives Norm Geary of Grayslake and Donna-Mae Litwiler of Ingleside expire next year. Kiesgan's candidacy materialized when Litwiler decided to run for the GOP endorsement for Lake County Clerk. Geary remains an unannounced candidate, but he is expected to seek reelection.

Mrs. Kiesgan served as deputy assessor for eight years. Her husband, Jack, has been Grant Twp. Highway Commissioner for the past five-and-a-half years. Jack Kiesgan is also chairman of the powerful Grant Twp. Republican Organization. (Lake County Sheriff Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox is perceived as the de facto leader of the Grant Twp. GOP party.)

Charlotte Kiesgan claims, "I am a Republican candidate, who is running independently. I won't be a running mate with any other candidate."

Historically, there has been political friction between Dist. 4 Rep. Norm Geary and the Grant Twp. organization. Kiesgan insists that she will not forge an anti-Geary coalition with another candidate.

We asked Mrs. Kiesgan whether or not she would reevaluate her county board candidacy if Donna-Mae Litwiler decided to withdraw from the county clerk's race and seek reelection to the Lake County Board.

Kiesgan conceded that many of her supporters were also political disciples of Litwiler. She admitted that she would have to reassess her political future, asserting: "I would have to discuss it with my (election) committee."

Lakeland also asked Mrs. Kiesgan what would be her posture in the March primary if the Lake County Republican Central Committee endorsed Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnel over Dist. 4 Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler in the county clerk's race.

McConnel and Litwiler are engaged in a hotly-contested battle for the party's primary endorsement. The GOP's Central Committee is expected to endorse countywide aspirants for the March 18th primary in early December.

Mrs. Kiesgan responded, "My husband is the Grant Twp. (Republican) Chairman, and I will be following his leadership."

We probed Mrs. Kiesgan concerning her knowledge of county government. When asked about size of the county budget, she admitted, "I don't have the slightest idea on this." Kiesgan added, "I am not coming out with any big statements or issues. I don't like to speak on issues until I do my homework. I have views."

But Charlotte Kiesgan strongly hinted that she would have opposed the Brae Loch acquisition. On Sept. 13, the Lake County Board, acting on its capacity as the Forest Preserve Dist. Board, voted to purchase the golf course at a price of $1.25 million. Kiesgan observed, "I have talked to one hundred people in Dist. 4 on the Brae Loch matter. I didn't talk to a lot of people in Avon Twp. None of them supported Brae Loch. I would have probably voted no on Brae Loch."

John Soffietie and Ken Hamsher are co-chairman of the Charlotte Kiesgan election committee. Other prominent members include Grant Twp. Supervisor Bertie Miller, former county board member Howard "Bud" Scott of Lake Villa, Rudy Magna, Jr. of Round Lake, Coroner Barbara Richardson, and Dist. 4 Rep. Jim Fields of Antioch.

Grant Twp. tends to be the dominant Republican faction in Dist. 4. Kiesgan's campaign reaffirms that Grant Twp. is the straw that stirs the drink in GOP politics in western Lake County.

Keeping Illinois Industry

Now that Illinois has landed the giant Chrysler-Mitsubishi auto-assembly plant with its 2,500 manufacturing jobs and 8,000 spinoff jobs, both insiders and outsiders are saying that Illinois knows how to get industry again.

It should also be noted as the celebrating continues that there are encouraging signs that Illinois now knows how to keep its industry. One of the biggest ways this is being accomplished is by steady progress in compensation reforms.

Economic development trips to Europe and the Far East may get the headlines, but it's new law like the cost-cutting legislation in the administration of workers' compensation recently signed by the governor that makes the difference. As an example of what we're talking about, we refer to S.B. 447 (Public Act 84-981) which amends the Workmen's Compensation Act to provide that employers will report to the Illinois Industrial Commission only those injuries that result in an employee's absence from the job of more than three working days. Past law mandated that reports be filed for all injuries that resulted in lost time of more than one workday, resulted in more than routine medical care or caused the worker to be assigned to alternative work tasks.

The new provision will substantially reduce the number of accident reports employers need to file, leading to significant cost savings, while providing a manageable number of reports filed with the Commission to create an accurate statistical data base on work-related accidents.

Illinois State Chamber of Commerce President Lester W. Brann, Jr. lauded the new law. "What might appear to be a minor amendatory change in the W.C. system is actually a major first step in long-sought efforts to improve administration of the state's W.C. program. This Amendment allows for a more manageable number of accident reports to be sent to the Commission. We now urge the Governor and legislators to provide funding so these statistics can be compiled. Business and labor alike will benefit."

Overhauling anti-business laws that impede economic development is dreary, thankless work in the General Assembly, but it has to be done if Illinois is to reverse the drain of business and jobs that has been going on for almost a decade.

No Column

Editor Bill Schroeder did not write a column this week. Editor's Viewpoint will be resumed next week.

Talking Self Esteem, Politicos Have It All

by JOHN STEINKE

This week we are going to examine the three fundamental principles of politics and government. If you digest these three basic concepts, you'll understand the nature of all elections and the workings of government.

In 1926, South Dakota gubernatorial candidate, William J. Bular, said: "There are no issues. My opponent has a job and I want it. That's what this election is all about." Those were the first and the last honest words spoken by a political candidate. Bular said it all in three immortal sentences.

Steinke On Politics

And he won the election. In the succeeding 59 years, all utterances of every politician have been mean-spirited lies, clear half-truths, and impenetrable balderdash.

Lesson No. 1: The only motivation of any politician is getting into office and holding it. Candidates only love us for our votes.

One of Illinois' most distinguished public servants was the late Paul T. Powell. He was once mayor of Vienna, a member of the Illinois House of Representatives for 30 years, speaker of the house for three terms, and secretary of state for six years. After Powell died on Oct. 10, 1970, it was discovered that the late Secretary of State had stashed away $800,000 in shoeboxes. Yet, Powell was a rare breed of public servant. He didn't conceal his motivations. Powell used to admonish his political colleagues: "There's only one thing worse than a defeated politician, and that's a broke politician."

Lesson No. 2: Every public official has a vested interest: himself. Most officeholders are motivated by greed, power, and ambition. Some want to collect money in shoeboxes. As one Southern politician once said: "I'm not in politics for the money, it's the graft that counts." Other officials are on a power trip. As soon as they are elected, their hat sizes increase. They expect their constituents to scrape and bow in front of them. These politicians believe that they have been ordained by God to hold public office. They forget that it is poor sinners like themselves, who have elected them to their public positions. Finally, there are those politicians, who suffer from Potomac Fever. These ego maniacs see the White House as a background when they brush their teeth in the morning. They dream of redecorating the residency at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave.

Lesson No. 3: Don't become a groupie for any politician. Lane Kirkland, the president of the AFL-CIO, once remarked: "It's a mark of amateurism to fall in love with a politician. They'll break your heart every time."

Now, your humble columnist has two recommendations for you. First, never give any candidate an election landslide. Keep him on a short leash so he remains sensitive to your interests and concerns. Second, when a politician comes strutting up to you, please remind him that you have the power to hire or fire him with your vote.

Letters To The Editor

Precious Children

Editor:

We came to Gurnee from downstate, and after having lived and worked in Gurnee and Warren Township for over 50 years, and loving every minute of it, we are very saddened at the lack of community spirit that we have at present. Our two children were graduates of Warren Twp. High School when there was a closeness in the area, and parents showed a loving concern for the schools.

In those past 50 years, the one-room schools have been replaced by the beautiful complex of Woodland schools; Gurnee's old grade school was torn down to build a needed bigger one, then the Viking and Spaulding schools were added to take care of the additional students who have come along into our expanding area.

But, through the years, our once dear and sufficient Warren Twp. High School has been added to and re-arranged in various ways that became almost a maze. Now, when we have the opportunity of having a new high school for the township to be proud of, we are faced with the idea of trying to unite two separate remaining sections of the old building which aren't adequate and may not be structurally sound - and what do we get? - another maze.

Plans are under way for us to get a new county jail, figured at 29 million dollars to house our incorrigibles. For our dear high school youth, while we have a choice, can't we build a structure for them that is as modern as the other schools of Lake County?

Aren't our children and grandchildren more precious than dollars? Let's get united and get going! We're wasting time and getting exasperated!

My sympathy goes out to these students who are forced to get up at 5 or 5:30 each morning to catch a bus, then ride an hour to school, and then another hour back home in the late afternoon. Also, the extra-curricular activities are bound to suffer from such a schedule.

Mrs. Bernelda Clem

Asking For Choice

Editor:

I would like to applaud the letter written by Mr. & Mrs. R.J. Morby, Sr. and printed in the Lakeland Forum. It was highly informative, giving facts, figures and quoting state laws and statutes relevant to the current WTHS dispute. They have covered it very well and there isn't much I can add except my own personal feeling regarding the issue.

I am incensed that the school board has been proceeding with plans to raze the structurally sound buildings which were not touched by the fire. They are morally and legally in the wrong. The majority of the voters voted no to the referendum on June 29 and the school board chose to completely disregard this fact. What ever happened to the American Democratic way of life where the majority rules? If the WTHS school board had won that referendum, we objectors would have had no alternative except to go along with it.

This is my hard earned money they are obligating for the next xx number of years and not for one minute do I believe they will stay within the amount they have designated plus the insurance reimbursement for the new school. There are cost overruns and I would expect them to be monumental in a project of this magnitude.

It is my understanding that the mayor would prefer another referendum and there certainly should be one so that the WTHS school board will know where they stand on this issue with the majority of the people once and for all. Let us vote on the school board preferred and costly Plan C, or a lesser plan which would retain the building which are intact, updating and rebuilding where necessary. Give us a choice rather than telling us this is it whether the majority likes it or not. Who do they think they are? God!

Water Worries

Editor:

I recently attended a Groundwater Protection Plan Public Workshop in Libertyville, sponsored by the IEPA, which was held to discuss and seek public input on concerns and issues relating to groundwater. Since this was the only workshop held in Lake County, I was appalled at the poor attendance. F.T. "Mike" Graham (Libertyville township supervisor) was the only one of the 13 people attending who is an elected official. Do the rest of our elected officials care so little about the problems of pollution of groundwater that they feel it is unnecessary to learn about ways to prevent further contamination? We cannot continue to bury our hazardous and toxic wastes into the ground and expect God to provide us with an unending supply of pure fresh water. Laws need to be enacted to protect this vital natural resource and these laws must be carefully thought out by the people we have elected to represent us.

Hess Announces Candidacy

Lake County Clerk Linda Hess has announced that she will seek re-election to a second term in 1986. Hess said she will campaign on her record of running an efficient office while still reducing the costs of all operations.

Hess, the only countywide-elected Democrat, said, "It's important that we retain two-party government as a check and balance system. I believe most people want two parties in office. And, most importantly, I believe the minority party should hold the election machinery."

Hess said she hopes to be the second Democrat ever to be re-elected in Lake County, following in the footsteps of her predecessor, Grace Mary Stern.

She said she will spend the next six months organizing the details of her campaign.

Nine Chairmen Pledge Support For Litwiler

Donna Mae Litwiler's campaign for county clerk received another boost today with the announcement by nine Republican Twp. Chairmen of their pledge of support for Litwiler in the March Primary.

"The support of these important Republican Chairmen puts me very close to my goal of endorsement by the Lake County Republican Central Committee. Each day, I become more excited about the enthusiasm of my workers."

Litwiler's support has come from key Republican townships. Chairmen committed to a Litwiler Candidacy include: Avon Twp., Charles Oplawski; Benton Twp., Morgan Williams; Deerfield Twp., Mark Leopold; Fremont Twp., John Reindl; Grant Twp., Jack Kiesgen; Lake Villa Twp., Glen Moore; Shields Twp., Mary Beattie; Vernon Twp., William Peterson; Warren Twp., Shawn Depke.

Jack Kiesgen, a long time Litwiler supporter, stated: "I know that Donna has strong support among the township chairmen. Several chairmen not already committed have been quietly supporting her. They are waiting for their committeemen to vote before they announce the endorsement."

Several influential members of Litwiler's organization have been meeting with mayors, village presidents, and township supervisors to line up commitments for the March Primary. Weekly staff meetings have kept the candidate busy.

"The advice and support I have received from our county officials has been invaluable. The support I have received from community and civic leaders is most gratifying. I love meeting the people and helping them with their problems. I look forward to doing the same as county clerk."

Several "fun fundraisers" have been scheduled for Donna Mae. Finance Committee Chairman, William Brook, has set aside Oct. 21 at Hoff's Columbia Bay Inn, for Litwiler supporters to gather for a big-screen showing of the Bears vs. Packers game on Monday Night Football. The $10 ticket price includes munchies, beer and wine.

Smoking Clinic To Begin Oct. 21

The fall session of the "I Quit Smoking" clinic held by Condell Memorial Hospital begins Monday, Oct. 21, in the hospital's dining room.

Smokers who are interested in a group approach to breaking the habit will find this week-long program presents information regarding the physiological, psychological, and sociological aspects of smoking.

The five consecutive programs are held from 7:30 to 9 p.m., concluding Friday, Oct. 25.

In the opening session, participants will take a test that measures the carbon monoxide level in their bodies. Because it takes approximately three days for carbon monoxide to disappear from the body, each person taking the test will see drastic improvement when a second test is taken near the end of the clinic, if he or she has not smoked during the week.

Members of the hospital's medical staff who will be speaking during the clinic are Archie Estey, D.D.S., William Greenfield, M.D., and John Matseshe, M.D. Patricia Tydel, R.N., continuing education department, and Cindy Schleich, R.T.T., cardiorespiratory care department, will also speak.

To register for the "I Quit Smoking" clinic, call Condell's nursing services at (312) 362-2900, extension 5122. Condell Memorial Hospital is a subsidiary of The Medical Center of Lake County.

Extensive Perspiration From Work Can Be Harmful

by PAT DeANGELIS

Question: Can extensive perspiration from exercising or strenuous work in the heat be harmful?

Answer: The hypothalamus part of the brain is our body's temperature regulating center. This thermostat does not have the ability to shut off heat completely. It can only initiate a body response to protect the body from a buildup of heat. As the intensity of the work increases, the body temperature increases.

The major defense against overheating is evaporation, the cooling effect of perspiration coming in contact with air currents. The effectiveness of this cooling system depends on the amount of exposed skin, of temperature and humidity of the air, and the air around the body.

Humid air contains a large amount of moisture, which interferes with evaporation, thus reducing your body's cooling efficiency.

Strenuous work, exercising in hot and humid weather or wearing clothing that covers the skin tightly can lead to dehydration, heat cramps, heat exhaustion, and heat stroke.

Dehydration often occurs because not enough fluid has been taken in to replace lost fluid. The first symptoms of dehydration are a decrease in physical energy usually, interfering with your performance, and a decreased ability to tolerate the heat.

Sodium and potassium which are electrolytes (our body electricity) are often lost during dehydration and may result in muscle spasms or cramps.

To prevent dehydration drink 8 to 16 ounces of water before activity and every 20 to 30 minutes during activity. Water is best to re-hydrate followed by watered down juices.

High refined sugar drinks, such as pop or juice drinks actually overwork the body metabolism and should be avoided.

Potassium can be replaced with dried apricots, raisins, or prunes of approximately one cup serving, or watermelon, one slice, one large avocado, or papaya. Fresh watermelon juice or diluted papaya juice would satisfy the need for water plus potassium.

Salt tablets usually are not necessary. Natural sodium (salt) from vegetables such as celery or spinach or juice such as tomato or V-8 will aid in necessary replacement.

Prolonged excessive sweating, blood volume decreases and circulation becomes insufficient for increased needs of active muscles, and body core temperature increases. Heat exhaustion results with symptoms of lowered blood pressure, weak and rapid pulse and a feeling of faintness and disorientation.

If rest, gradual cooling of body, and fluids are not taken, the skin will become hot and dry and unconsciousness may result. Heat stroke can occur when the body temperature regulating mechanism is no longer functioning and perspiration ceases.

Immediate medical treatment is necessary for heatstroke where body temperature is lowered as quickly and possible and fluid balance restored.

All the above heat disturbances can also occur by lying or sitting in direct sun especially between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. for prolonged periods without proper attention to fluid intake.

The more physically fit you are the more heat your body can endure.

Malson-Simons

The bride-to-be is a 1980 graduate of Wichita Northwest High School, Wichita, Kan., and a 1984 graduate of Kansas University. She has a bachelor of science degree in journalism. She is a regional sales representative for Eastman Kodak Co. in Torrance, Calif.

The groom-to-be is a 1979 graduate of Lawrence High School, Lawrence, Kan. and a 1984 graduate of Kansas University. He has a bachelor of science degree in journalism. He is employed as an assistant manager for Columbine CableVision in Fort Collins, Colo.

CUB Sees Higher Bills

Higher phone bills are in store for Chicago and suburban residents if the latest Illinois Bell rate plan is implemented, according to a study released by the Citizens Utility Board (CUB).

Phone bills for residential customers in Chicago could increase by as much as 275 percent and some suburban customers could suffer a 192 percent hike.

"The new rate structure will result in higher bills for many and more confusion for everyone," said CUB Executive Director Sue Stewart in testimony before the Illinois House Public Utilities Committee.

CUB, a 125,000-member utility watchdog, has formally requested a rate reduction for Bell. The case is now before the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The CUB study analyzed the impact of Bell's proposed rate restructuring on a variety of calling patterns throughout the metropolitan area. The study found that:

- the price of Call-Pak units will go up 25 percent;
- certain Call-Pak services will be discontinued, forcing some customers to purchase a bigger, higher priced plan;
- small businesses making most of their calls within Chicago and who use less than 10,000 message units per month will see 5 - 25 percent increases in call charges;
- suburban residents who make all or most of their calls to neighboring communities could endure a 192 percent boost;

The CUB study cited several examples of how the proposed rates will affect specific communities. A caller in Chicago Heights, for example, who makes 80 calls monthly (half in Chicago Heights and half in neighboring towns) will see a 33 percent increase in 3-minute calls and a 140 percent hike in 10-minute calls.

Similarly, a Chicagoan making half his calls in Chicago (but outside his immediate neighborhood) could see a 64 percent hike for a 3-minute call and a 203 percent increase for a 10-minute call.

October ... 1985

Dear Friend:

The year was 1978. The month October. Pope John Paul I was about to be buried and in Lake County, Great America was completing its second successful year. Woodrow Hayek retired from the Globe Department Store after 49 years and 2¢ milk was advertised at $1.01 a gallon; and at the Lakeland Newspapers rising costs had prompted us to raise our subscription rates.

There have been many changes in the seven years since our last price increase, including a 150% increase in the price of the paper this is printed upon, postage increases, wage increases and increased costs for light, heat and water (to say nothing of taxes). Now for the first time in nearly seven years, we are compelled to raise our subscription and newsstand rates.

We know that increased prices are universally unpopular and upsetting to budgets. To ease this transition, during the month of October you may enter a new subscription or renew and add to your subscription at current rates... saving $2.00 off the rates which become effective November 15, 1985.

We appreciate your patronage and confidence in the Lakeland Newspapers and promise to do our very best in bringing you current news about your neighbors in Lake County, in your schools, in your town, all along with the special features you enjoy every week.

Should you decide to beat the price increase, I welcome you to use the coupon located in this advertisement. But, please, renew or subscribe today because November 15, 1985, the new prices will take effect.

On behalf of our Lakeland Newspapers employees, I thank you for the pleasure and responsibility of providing you with Lake County's best news coverage.

Sincerely,
Bill Schroeder, Publisher

P.S.

If you subscribe or renew now, we'll give you a FREE GIFT! During this subscription drive we'll give you a handy drawstring tote bag, good for many uses, as our way of saying thanks for your confidence.

Balsamo, a Lake Forest attorney, is on the Big Brothers/Big Sisters board and, along with Turennot, an advisory board member and president of Krupp Widia in Deerfield, serves as co-chairman of its fund-raising membership drive. Capt. Weichman Changes Command

Naval Flying Ace Takes Georgia Post

Lake County's most decorated military flyer from the Viet Nam War has a new assignment as commander of a reserve facility in Atlanta, Ga.

He is Capt. Denis R. Weichman, a native of Grayslake, a Naval aviator since 1955.

In his new assignment, Weichman is commanding officer of the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Center in Atlanta.

Captain Weichman made

Naval aviation history in 1973 when he flew his last combat mission in southeast Asia, giving him a total of 625 fixed wing sorties in four types of Navy and Air Force aircraft.

Among his many decorations is the Distinguished Flyer Cross and the Purple Heart.

Before going to Georgia he was in command of the Naval Air Facility in Detroit.

He is a graduate of Grayslake High and the University of Illinois. He and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two daughters. His mother is a resident of Grayslake.

Ratings Assess Legislators

The Illinois Political Action Committee (IPAC), an affiliate of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, has released its Legislative Ratings for 1985.

This is the fourteenth consecutive year IPAC has rated Illinois legislators. The ratings, which are extensively distributed, are used by local chambers of commerce and State Chamber member firms in assessing the performance of various legislators.

Seventeen legislative issues were used in the Illinois House and 18 in the Senate on subjects ranging from spousal insurance and low income utility assistance to streamlining the state's workers' compensation system. The votes represent an opportunity for legislators to stand up and be counted as a friend or enemy of business in Illinois.

Unlike the numerous trade associations in the state whose members are generally concerned with more narrowly defined issue areas, the State Chamber is a business organization whose members are interested in all legislation which affects many types of business and impacts on the state's jobs and investment climate.

According to the 1985 ratings, 92 legislators voted with business more than half the time; three were right at 50 percent and 82 voted less than a majority of the time with ISCC's position.

In the Illinois House (within the Lakeland News readership area), Rep. Churchill (R) voted with ISCC on 94 percent of the issues; Rep. Frederick (R), 75 percent; Rep. Klemm (R), 94 percent; Rep. Matijevich (D), 35 percent and Rep. Peterson (R), 88 percent.

In the Illinois Senate (within the Lakeland News readership area), Sen. Barkhausen (R) voted with ISCC on 89 percent of the issues; Sen. Geo-Karis (R), 89 percent and Sen. Schaffer (R), 100 percent.

"The emergence of a number of new anti-business groups is clearly evident in the Legislative Ratings," said State Chamber President Lester W. Brann, Jr. "The agendas of these groups include such issues as community right to know, extending spousal insurance coverage after termination of a marriage, comparable worth and low-income energy assistance.

"The State Chamber will continue to lead the effort against skyrocketing health care costs and burdensome environmental laws and regulations," Brann said. "We will monitor the long and tedious process of drafting regulations to implement the new Public Utilities Act and the educational reforms adopted this year and we will propose more incentives and less government involvement for small businesses."

News Release
Family of Standout's
 By mid November, the Pavichik family will have relocated to the Schaumburg area. It has been both my personal and business pleasure to have employed three of the Pavichik children, Lisa, Jim and Lou. All three individuals have exemplified the character, patience, dependability, responsibility and zest for working that helps make a company successful. The employment aspect of any business is very difficult and odds of finding a "stand-out" employee are small. Lisa, Jim and Lou have all been "stand-outs." They will be truly missed, but not forgotten. My many thanks and gratitude for jobs well done.

TV Nostalgia

By Paul Elie

After a season on the beach as "Gidget," Sally Field moved to a convent for "The Flying Nun," a comedy that first aired on CBS in 1967. The idea of a flying nun was ridiculous, even in an era of TV dolphins and talking horses, but the series ran for three seasons before being canceled in 1970.

Field portrayed Sister Bertrille, a personable novice at the Convent San Tanco. She weighed only 90 pounds, and every so often tropical winds would sweep her to misadventure. She would return to the convent flustered or dripping wet, having been trailed by U.S. reconnaissance planes or dunked in the ocean. The Mother Superior, played by Madeleine Sherwood, was not pleased.

But not all of Sister Bertrille's adventures were calamitous. She got along well with her fellow novices and the residents of the tropical island on which the show was set.

Question: Where was the show set?

Answer: Puerto Rico

YES, YOU CAN!

You may have seen many new satellite earth stations, or "dishes", installed in our area recently and asked yourself, "Are those dishes legal?" or, "Can I have one of those?" Well, happily the answer to both questions is YES. In 1984, the U.S. Congress approved home earth stations designed for the reception of satellite broadcasts. Not only are dishes legal to use, they are affordable, too. You can enjoy the freedom and wide variety of satellite television today.

STARVIEW

Test your TV family IQ

By Peter Meade

Series featuring family life have always been a frequent sight on TV. In fact, television viewers probably know more about the Cleaver, Douglas, Ewing and Cartwright families than they do about their own.

This season, along with returning families such as the Keatons ("Family Ties"), Carringtons ("Dynasty"), Huxtables ("The Cosby Show"), Gibbbs ("Mr. Belvedere") and Papadopolises ("Webster"), viewers can get to know several new families. ABC offers the most new "family viewing": the Seavers on the new Tuesday night sitcom "Growing Pains," the Danzigs and McKays of "Our Family Honor" as well as more Carringtons on the spinoff "Dynasty II: The Colbys." CBS adds the Richmonds of "Charlie & Co." while NBC is with- out a new family offering.

Now is the time to gather your family to see how many of these family series of the past that you can remember:

- 1) This singing family features a mother and her real-life stepson.
- 2) Dick Sargent took over for Dick York on this sitcom.
- 3) This drama features the Lawrences of Pasadena, Calif.
- 4) This family moved from the Ozark Mountains to California.

5) Linda Evans played the daughter on this Western.

6) The Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia were the setting for this drama.

7) A widow with three daughters married a widower with three sons on this sitcom.

8) The bachelor Bolts lumbered through this Seattle series.

9) This series featured the Ingalls family.

10) George, Jane, Judy and Elroy comprised this spaced out family.

11) Henry Fonda and Ron Howard were members of this family.

12) Billie Jo, Bobbie Jo and Betty Jo were the daughters on this series.

13) Glenn Ford and Julie Harris were the heads of this family.

14) Uncle Tonoose visited his nephew's family frequently on this series.

15) This oddball lot lived at 1313 Mockingbird Lane.

ANSWERS: (1) "The Partridge Family" (2) "Bewitched" (3) "Family" (4) "The Beverly Hillbillies" (5) "The Big Valley" (6) "The Waltons" (7) "The Brady Bunch" (8) "Here Come the Brides" (9) "Little House on the Prairie" (10) "The Jetsons" (11) "The Smith Family" (12) "Petticoat Junction" (13) "The Family Holvak" (14) "The Danny Thomas Show," a.k.a. "Make Room for Daddy" (15) "The Munsters"

Panthers Getting Close To First IHSA Playoff

The Round Lake Panthers are one victory away from clinching at least a tie for the Northwest Suburban Conference championship.

With Marengo and Lake Zurich left on its schedule, Round Lake needs only to beat one of them to clinch a first-place tie in the conference. Two wins would give the Panthers a undefeated 7-0 mark in the conference and an undisputed conference championship, as well as their first-ever berth in the IHSA playoffs.

The Panthers are currently 5-0 in the conference, 5-2 overall.

They will be playing the Marengo Indians at home on Saturday, Oct. 19, starting at 1 p.m.

Marengo is coming off a disappointing 15-8 loss to previously winless Grayslake.

Round Lake, on the other hand, is coming off a close 9-7 victory over the Wauconda Bulldogs last weekend.

The Wauconda victory extended the Panthers winning streak to five games, after they had lost their first two games of the season to Elmwood Park and Dundee-Crown.

The hero against Wauconda was kicker Dave Kaempf, who booted a 37-yard field goal in the third quarter and also scored on a 24-yard pass from quarterback Walter Tesch (Kaempf accounted for all of the Panthers' nine points).

Kaempf's field goal in the third quarter was set up when Troy Haines gained 51 yards on a draw play on a third-and-30 situation.

The Panthers only managed to get 10 first downs against the Bulldogs. They had 152 yards on the ground, while Tesch was five of 10 in the air for 47 yards and no interceptions.

Wauconda scored in the fourth quarter on a five-yard touchdown pass to Paul Nibbio from quarterback Tony Niemo.

Spartans Win 7-6

The Round Lake Spartan heavyweights won a thrilling 7-6 victory over Highland Park Oct. 3.

The Spartans scored first on a 40-yard screen pass from Keith Krause to Rodrigo Rodriguez. Highland Park scored late in the game to tie the score.

The Spartan lightweights lost their game with Highland Park 20-0. The Spartans gained only 87 yards in the game; 77 in the air and only 10 on the ground.

Warren Blue Devils To Face Wildcats

The Warren Twp. Blue Devils will host first place Libertyville at 8 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 18 after a devastating homecoming loss to Antioch on Oct. 12, 26-0.

The homecoming loss leaves the Blue Devils with a 3-4 record in the North Suburban league while the Wildcats are unbeaten with a 7-0 conference record.

"It was a team effort and a team loss, there really isn't one thing that was to blame," head coach Reggie Hughes said.

Antioch dominated the game against Warren from the beginning. The Sequoias had more than 250 yards in total offense while Warren had just 75 yards.

The Blue Devils seemed unable to get its ground game moving and were only four for 16 in its passing game.

Warren's only scoring chance was during the very first play in which Pekeda Bennett ran the kickoff return into the endzone only to be called back due to an illegal block.

Leading Antioch was Mike DoBoash who completed 11 of 18 passes for 131 yards. DoBoash passed for one touchdown and ran for another.

Winning Touchdown

Warhawks Have Good Chance At Lake Forest

The North Chicago Warhawks will try to bring their victory total to two this weekend when they play at Lake Forest on Saturday, Oct. 19, starting at 2 p.m.

The Warhawks are coming off a disappointing 8-6 loss to the Mundelein Mustangs last weekend.

North Chicago led 6-0 at the half but the Mustangs scored early in the third quarter for the 8-6 victory on a four-yard run by Dave Rogers.

The Warhawks scored in the second quarter when quarterback Elmer Smith hit running back Victor Earl with a 30-yard touchdown pass.

North Chicago had a chance to win the game late in the fourth but the Mustangs' defense got tough. The Warhawks had the ball first and goal at the Mundelein eight yard line but the Mustangs held the Warhawks on four downs.

This weekend, North Chicago, who has been improving each week, will have a good chance of beating the Lake Forest Scouts.

Lake Forest is in eighth place in the North Suburban Conference with a 2-5 conference mark. They are coming off a tough 12-6 overtime loss to the Libertyville Wildcats.

Lee, Mendoza Win Tournament

Tommy Lee and Nick Mendoza have won the 1985 season single elimination match play partnership golf tournament at Renwood Country Club in Round Lake Beach.

The tournament, which began on the Memorial Day Weekend, ended Sept. 21 when Lee and Mendoza won their fourth consecutive match. They defeated Elmer Spychala and Jim Spychala, four and three in the finals.

In the semi-finals, Stan Geumm and Cleo Guezendam were defeated by Lee and Mendoza; Wally Ames and Walt Nesheim were defeated by Spychala and Spychala.

Bulldogs To Host 2-3 Wauconda

The Grant Bulldogs will host Wauconda (2-3) Saturday after they came home with a 36-34 controversial loss in four overtimes to Marian Central.

Head Coach Mike Rogowski praised his players for a solid effort during the four overtimes. "We just have to keep working hard," said Rogowski, who faces two more games in the season, against Wauconda and Grayslake.

In Friday night's game, Grant was on the short end of a 36-28 score when it entered the fourth overtime. Garry Glauser's 10-yard run put the Bulldogs two points behind the Marian Central Hurricanes. On the two-point conversion attempt, Kevin Frystak fumbled before he crossed the goal line and the ball was recovered by Marian Central, the referees determined.

Skyhawks To Host Grayslake

The Johnsbury Skyhawks will host Grayslake (1-4) Saturday after a 7-6 loss against Lake Zurich.

Johnsbury (1-4) scored on its final possession when Pete Switzer caught a 9-yard touchdown pass from Frank Husak. The Skyhawks reached for victory and decided to go for the two-point conversion. Switzer tried to run the ball in only to be thrown back five yards by the Lake Zurich defense.

The use of HCG in a weight reduction program was originally researched and developed by Dr. A.T.W. Simeons of Rome, Italy over 30 years ago. Since Dr. Simeons' early work, HCG has been prescribed in Europe for weight reduction in both men and women. The program has been successfully used in the U.S. for the last 15 years.

Indications: HCG is not approved by FDA as safe and effective for weight control. There is no substantial evidence that it increases weight loss beyond that resulting from caloric restriction, that it causes a more attractive "normal" distribution of fat, or that it decreases the hunger and discomfort associated with caloric restricted diets.

Carmel To Face Notre Dame Looking for Second Straight

You can't blame Carmel's win-hungry Corsairs for looking at the last third of the rapidly waning 1985 football campaign as the start of a new season.

And if they are, the Corsairs are "undefeated" and looking for their second consecutive victory Friday night, Oct. 18, in a road game against Notre Dame of Niles.

The Corsairs delighted Coach Jim Rejc and a near-capacity homecoming crowd last Friday night with their first East Suburban Catholic Conference win by knocking off winless Holy Cross.

The Corsairs never did muster any offense and they suffered a 9-10 defeat, their deepest penetration coming when they punted deep to Carmel in the second quarter, the Corsairs taking over on their own one yard line.

Rejc is pointing the Corsairs, now 2-5 for the season, to two more victories, which would give the Mundelein school a 4-5 record for 1985 and the varsity mentor his best season in five years as head coach.

Carmel was eager to "get at" the hapless Crusaders. Rod Whittier, in his most impressive game of the season, got the ball into scoring position in the first quarter on a 44 yard run and a 25 yard pass play. Chuck Foy punched it over on a plunge with 3:09 minutes of action remaining. Whittier totaled 103 yards in 13 trips.

Carmel's offensive line took charge of things in the second quarter like no other time this season and opened up big holes for Foy and Kurt Hein, as the Corsairs drove the full length of the field.

This time Wildwood's Whittier got the TD, blasting over from the one to make the score 12-0. Quarterback John Terlap and Bob Offner hooked up on a two point conversion, only to have the score nullified when an official spotted an ineligible receiver downfield.

Tightend Ashley Boeckholt took a fourth period pass covering 62 yards for his first touchdown of the season to cap the scoring that ended Carmel's five-game losing streak. Jerry Maloney kicked the extra point.

The Carmel sophomores romped to their fifth victory against only two defeats 32-0.

Bulldogs Refuse To Surrender

The Wauconda underdogs matched their Homecoming theme of "Never Surrender" in their battle against the conference-leading Round Lake Panthers.

The Bulldogs nearly upset Round Lake, the first place team. The Panthers slipped away with a slim 9-7 win.

The Bulldogs, although dominant in total yards and first downs, could not pull off a Homecoming victory.

Despite the tremendous effort, "It doesn't count when the score is added up," Wauconda coach Fred Loffredo said.

The Bulldog bench was a site of disbelief. Some mud-soaked players stood shaking their heads while others sat holding their heads in their hands.

Tight end Jerry Van Dyke said, "We should've killed them. We should've torn them apart." Senior Van Dyke had 88 yards in seven receptions for the game. "We had too many bad breaks," he said.

One such bad break occurred after an untimely off-sides penalty on Wauconda. Round Lake quarterback Walter Tesch completed a 23-yard pass to senior David Kaempf. With second quarter just underway, the Panthers led 6-0.

During the second half, the Wauconda defense effectively held back the Panthers until the first play of the fourth quarter. On third down and 30 yards to go, Troy Haines broke out down the sidelines for a 51-yard gain.

"That was the back-breaker," Loffredo said. "They would've had to punt deep in their territory. If we got good field position, all we'd have to do was kick."

Instead, the Panthers' drive set up a 37-yard field goal to extend their lead to 9-0.

Displaying their Homecoming spirit, the Bulldogs refused to give up.

Wauconda drove across the field from their own 15 to the 5-yard line of Round Lake where Tony Niemo fired a pass to senior Paul Nibbio in the endzone. Norm Niemo made it 9-7 with his successful extra-point kick attempt.

Not until an incomplete pass on a fourth down and long did Wauconda abandon their hopes for victory. "Up to that last play when they got the ball back, I thought we might've had a chance," Bulldog Van Dyke said.

Despite the outcome, Loffredo said he was impressed with the team's performance. "My hat's off to these kids playing the way they did," he said. "They never gave up."

The Bulldogs at 3-4 will take on hosting Grant Friday night for an 8 p.m. game. The Grant Bulldogs suffered an agonizing defeat to the Marian Central Hurricanes 36-34 in four overtimes last Friday.

TIME OUT!

A Look At Sports Around Lake County

By Joel Wiltberger

I went to Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary and found some interesting definitions. Here are a few:

Football: a game played between two teams of 11 players each in which the ball is in possession of one side at a time and is advanced by running or passing.

Game: activity engaged for diversion or amusement.

Player: a person who plays the game.

Coach: to direct the movements of a player.

Now that sounds simple, doesn't it, except for one thing—I happen to have a son who plays this game and I'm sure some of you out there can relate to this.

I'm thinking about changing my name to "Coach." You see, my son never ceases to amaze me how he can do so well on the field and be a total "space" at home. His favorite response is "In a minute" or "Nobody ever told me that."

He doesn't remember to take phone messages, but he knows the snap count and where to be on certain plays and I assume he doesn't say "huh" when the team calls a play in the huddle, and most of the time he remembers what play is called.

Here is a player who runs all day in practice and at games and then can hardly make it to the door to let his dog out (or back in within a reasonable length of time). He wants a remote control to be able to change tv channels from the couch (which he has somehow taken over).

His room resembles the remnants of a tornado with a locker room odor. He doesn't know how 10 pairs of grass-stained, off white socks have suddenly appeared in my dresser drawer.

I'm sure if he called me "Coach," things would change at home, after all, I yell and scream just as much as they do!

Maybe it would be a good thing to remember the definition of the word "game" and take it like it is. Sometimes we forget a high school football game is played by young people and so often the focus is too much on winning (at any cost) and not enough on just playing the game to the best of their abilities. I'm sure that's all any coach could ask.

A look around the county this week: Libertyville (7-0) clinched at least a share of the North Suburban crown with an overtime win against Lake Forest.

In the Northwest Suburban, Lake Zurich (4-1) stayed in the hunt with a double overtime win over Johnsburg (1-4), as did Marian Central (4-1) defeating Head Coach Mike Rogawski's Grant Bulldogs in four overtimes! (Those darn officials!)

Emerging as one of the prime kickers in the county is Round Lake's Dave Kaempf, who's 37 yard field goal helped keep Head Coach Mike Dunn's Panthers (5-0) alone on top. Kaempf gives Round Lake a threat to score anytime it crosses its opponent's 40 yard line.

A look back—The year was 1955, Round Lake's final football game of its maiden season. It was a cold, wet October afternoon (much like the weather we've been having lately), and with seconds to go in the game, Norman "Beetle" Bailey scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak over a "gaping" hole provided by center Jim Borovka and a 140-pound guard, John Magee (former Avon Twp. Tax Assessor). This was the first and only touchdown made that year by the Panthers in a 27-6 loss to Salem-Central.

If you can contribute to a look back at the Lake County athletes of the past, call Sports Line at (312) 223-8161.

Grayslake Rams Beat Marengo At Homecoming

The Grayslake Rams will play at Johnsburg at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 19 after winning its homecoming game on Oct. 12 against Marengo, 15-8.

The homecoming win was Grayslake's first Northwest Suburban Conference victory bringing Grayslake to a 1-4 record.

The Grayslake defense held Marengo to a total of 109 yards. The Indians gained only 35 yards in 25 rushes and 74 yards with five out of 15 complete passes. One of the passes was a 38-yard completion for the only Marengo touchdown.

Grayslake rushed for 87 yards in 37 carries and gained 54 yards with four complete passes out of 12 tries by Bill Sangbusch.

Tom Castino ran 50 yards in 23 carries while Kevin Olson ran 35 yards in six carries.

Although the varsity team led Grayslake to victory, the sophomore team had a disappointing loss to Marengo, 22-6.

The loss dropped the sophomore team to a 1-4 record.

Quarterback Timm West completed 11 of 23 passes for 135 yards and two interceptions while Sean Mauritz was one for three for 32 yards.

Steve Smith caught three passes for 35 yards, Mauritz had three completes and Floyd had two catches for 47 yards and a touchdown.

Jeff Rendle returned three kicks for 72 yards.

Defensively, Jeff Bonfanti had 13 tackles and West had nine.

Mustangs Stomp North Chicago

The Mustangs 8-6 victory over the North Chicago Warhawks made gave their Oct. 12 homecoming even more reason to celebrate.

At the end of the first half, Warhawks quarterback Elmer Smith threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Victor Earl at the end of the first half.

Mustangs brought the score up during the third quarter after Dan Marsh kicked off 25 yards, leading to a 60-yard drive. Junior Dave Rogers led two plays, a 23-yard run and later a 4-yard run that tied the game. Reserve quarterback Jim Frank threw a pass to Martin Butler which earned the Mustangs two extra points.

Red Hot Sequoits Ready For Patriots

The Antioch Sequoits are on a roll and the Stevenson Patriots better look out when they invade Sequoit territory on Saturday, Oct. 19.

The Patriots are scheduled play Antioch at 2 p.m. on homecoming Saturday.

Antioch is currently tied for second place in the North Suburban Conference with the Zion-Benton ZeeBees. Both squads boast 5-2 records, trailing league-leading Libertyville who is 7-0.

The "red hot" Sequoits blasted Warren on its homecoming Saturday last weekend by a score of 26-0.

The Blue Devils were never in the game, as the Sequoits got a touchdown in each of the four quarters for the victory.

Quarterback Mike DoBosh opened the scoring in the first quarter with a one-yard run. The kick failed and Antioch led 6-0 after one period of play.

In the middle quarters, running back Pat Bruks got a couple of one-yard touchdown runs to make it 19-0 after three quarters.

The last score came on a 15-yard touchdown pass from DoBosh to Robert Visce.

Stevenson, on the other hand, is coming off a disappointing 6-3 loss to the Zion-Benton ZeeBees.

Colts, Raiders Split

The Grayslake Colts faced the Crystal Lake Raiders in the fifth conference game of the season with mixed results.

The Pee Wee team beat the Raiders 20-0, the Featherweights lost 0-6, the Lightweight won 46-0 and the Heavyweights were defeated 0-22.

Although the Heavyweights lost the game, the team played good hard ball. Glen Rostek, Shawn Kirby, Chuck Thompson and Todd Baczek played a good defense against the Raiders.

The teams' kick off and punter, John Bouma, has developed good distance in his kicks. The coaches are pleased with the development of the boys and the performance of the team.

Many of these Heavyweight players are planning to continue playing football next year when they begin high school.

The Colts will play its last conference game against the Warren Twp. Packers on Sunday, Oct. 20 at the Grayslake Community High School.

The Tiger Is An Animal Of Beauty

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

When you see a tiger, you may think of beauty. The tiger is one of the most admired and yet most feared animals in the world.

In the last 200 years, people have almost eliminated the tiger in the wild. He is one of the most endangered animals on earth.

He is a hunter and good at catching large prey as a single hunter. However, food is hard for the tiger to come by. He does not always catch his prey.

The old or weak tiger finds food hard to get. If he is desperate, he might attack humans. Most tigers run away from people. Few people are really killed by tigers. However, the tiger is often blamed unfairly for many deaths.

Tigers hunt wild pigs, deer, water buffalo and other large animals. They are unable to run fast for long distances. So, they can usually creep within 20 feet of their prey before the attack. He can leap 15 feet into the air.

The tiger has long razor-sharp claws for grabbing and holding the prey. His powerful jaws can kill prey with one quick bite.

The quickness and strength of a tiger can take down an animal twice his size.

His stripes blend so perfectly with the grass of the dark jungles that his prey can't see him until it is too late. By the way, no two tigers have the same exact pattern.

The tiger has to hunt day and night to get enough food. A full grown, hungry tiger will eat one hundred pounds of meat at one sitting. He will bury what is left for another meal. He might go weeks without a meal. By this time, he is ready to hunt any animal even if the prey is too dangerous for a tiger.

The male tiger may guard his food, but almost always will share with young cubs, even if they aren't his own.

The female tiger cares for the young. She is one of the most loving and caring mothers in the animal kingdom. She will even cuddle the babies to keep them warm. She will feed them, protect them, and teach them for three or four years. They have much to learn.

She may give birth to two, three or four cubs to a litter. They may be born in a cave or other protective place and kept there the first three months.

Pet-Wise

The mother tiger tries not to leave her young, not even for a short time. The young may be attacked, if unprotected, by a leopard, a hyena, or a python. There are many predators that eat tiger cubs. Perhaps this is why there are so many born to her—so that at least one will live.

It's hard for people to tell the male from the female tiger. Full-grown tigers are best figured by size. The female is smaller. She is a foot shorter and weighs about a hundred pounds less.

A male is about seven feet long and weighs about 420 pounds. The biggest male tiger ever measured was a Siberian Tiger. It weighed over 700 pounds.

"Since I first began contacting Republican leaders throughout the district about my candidacy for the state senate, the response has been very positive," said Peterson, who is now serving his second term of office as a state representative.

"In particular, State Rep. Virginia Frederick (R-Lake Forest), who represents one half of the 30th Senatorial District, has endorsed my candidacy. I am very pleased to have her support, which would certainly be very important in a primary race," he added.

Acknowledged as one of the outstanding freshmen legislators during his first term of office, Peterson is an outspoken advocate of a balanced budget for the state.

"State finances, along with providing additional funding for public education, will continue to be my priority areas," says Peterson, who is a former teacher, school administrator and director of field services for the Illinois Assn. of School Boards. He holds a master's degree in education from Northern Illinois University.

Peterson's work on behalf of public education has earned him numerous commendations from organizations throughout Illinois. A recent example of his commitment is the legislation he co-sponsored which provides financial relief to Warren Twp. High School district residents following a devastating fire.

Peterson has also received commendations from the Illinois Manufacturer's Assn. and the Illinois Chamber of Commerce for his support of legislation aimed at keeping and attracting new industry in Illinois. A good example is the legislation he recently co-sponsored supporting the development of a new marina in the Winthrop Harbor area.

"Governor Thompson, who supports the project, has already allocated funds for the engineering study," Peterson said.

"When completed, the marina will have a dramatic economic impact on the area between Waukegan and the Wisconsin state line along the lake shore," Peterson said.

A 17-year resident of Buffalo Grove, Peterson, who is married and has three children, reports that along with his extensive legislative background, he will bring to the 30th district senate seat many years of local governmental experience.

The 30th Senatorial District includes all or parts of Avon, Cuba, Elia, Deerfield, Libertyville, Shields, Vernon, Warren and West Deerfield Townships in Lake County, and the northernmost portion of Palatine Township in Cook County.

Business

Breaking Ground

Completion date for the 280,000-square-foot Lake Plaza is scheduled for spring of 1986. Lake Plaza, located on a 29-acre site at Dilger and Belvidere Roads (Highway 120), will be anchored by a 90,000-square-foot Venture store and an 80,000-square-foot Builders Square store and garden center. Green, blue, white and yellow balloons were released as representatives from Indianapolis-based Melvin Simon & Associated, Waukegan city officials and representatives from anchor-store Venture broke ground today for Lake Plaza community center. A 15-foot-high inflatable groundbreaking shovel commemorated the event.

Floor-To-Ceiling Grand Opening

Before the holiday season draws any closer, many homeowners are eager to embark on interior remodeling or redecorating projects. The once exhaustive search for the "just right" materials has been made simpler by a one-stop visit to the new Floor-To-Ceiling store in Mundelein.

The store, located at 12 S. Lake St., carries everything from counter tops and kitchen cabinets to design service, wallpaper and plumbing fixtures. In addition, Floor-To-Ceiling will offer complete installation of materials they provide, said owner Ed Klein.

Since it opened last May, the store has done "extremely well" in its new location. "With all the building going on along Route 60, this is a prime retail area," he said. "This type of store is needed in Mundelein."

David Coldiron, sales manager for the store, said that although the summer season is traditionally a low time for indoor home improvement projects, business has been very good.

"Usually the heavy remodeling seasons are from fall through spring, but we've had a very full summer," he said.

To coincide with the increase of fall remodeling projects, the store will celebrate its grand opening with a sale this Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 19 and 20. "Most stores hold a grand opening two or three months after they open," Klein said. "We thought with the amount of remodeling that goes on during the fall, this would be a good time to hold the sale."

Klein said that 50 percent of their customers are homeowners who want to do the work themselves. Full or partial installation services are available for those who want help.

"A lot of people want us to do the technical work and then they do the rest," he said. "This is one of the few stores where customers can come in for complete remodeling work."

Group To Meet

The Lake County Group of the National Assn. of Bank Women, Inc. (NABW) will hold its monthly meeting on Oct. 21 at Heather Ridge Community Center at Rtes. 120 & 21 in Gurnee for a buffet dinner with cocktails at 5:30 p.m. and dinner at 6 p.m.

Record sales and earnings were achieved by Abbott Laboratories for the third quarter ended Sept. 30, 1985.

The diversified health care manufacturer reported worldwide sales for the third quarter were $823 million, up 12.5 percent from $731 million in the third quarter of 1984. Earnings per share rose to 89 cents, a 17 percent increase from 76 cents a year ago. Net earnings were up 17 percent to $107 million, and operating earnings increased 11 percent to $170 million.

Leader In Trade Bill Drive

Congressman Philip M. Crane (R-12th), as ranking Republican member of the House Trade Subcommittee, will lead the drive for the passage of a trade bill. Eighty-three House Republicans are co-sponsoring the Trade Partnership Act of 1985. Congressman Crane warned that Congress must avoid the trade policy mistakes of this nation in the '30s which played such a major role in the international stagnation of the Depression.

Has 4 New Owners

When Ed and Dorothy Gleason, who had owned and operated the True Value Hardware Store in Linden Plaza in Lindenhurst decided to retire recently, the store was purchased by four partners.

The two faces that will probably be at the store the most to give all its customers personal attention and answer any and all questions will be George Livermore from Zion, and Egan Sorensen from Wildwood.

The other partners are

George's brother, Stan and Bob Leavitt who also own and operate the True Value in Antioch.

The store, which was operated by the Gleasons for 14 years, is in the process of being redecorated with a lot of physical changes taking place.

"We probably will have redecorated 85 percent of the store by the time we're finished," said George Livermore.

The displays have all been switched around and the new owners are also in the process of adding many new services and products such as lock re-keying, chains for chain saws, and they are expanding the existing plumbing, electrical and paint lines.

A small new department that will offer a line of lumber and building materials is also on the agenda.

Prof's Wife Defends Backing Of CLC Union

Dorothy Harnish of Grayslake is one of five candidates competing for three positions on the College of Lake County Board of Trustees in the Nov. 5 elections.

Harnish's husband, Frank, has been a speech and drama professor at CLC for the past 16 years. She is the first spouse of a CLC faculty member to seek election to the college board.

The CLC faculty union has endorsed Mrs. Harnish, along with incumbents F. James Lumber and Richard Anderson, in the college election.

The other candidates are former Lake County Board

Chairman Ron Coles and Melody Brown. Coles didn't seek the teachers' union endorsement because he wants to be "an independent voice on the board."

About the question of pro-teacher bias because her husband teaches at CLC and her candidacy has been endorsed by the faculty union, Harnish responded, "First, legally there is no conflict. I checked with the school's attorney. Second, from the practical level, Frank will be out of it in a year. There is a two-year contract between the college board and the faculty union. Before a new contract is negotiated, my husband will no doubt have retired from the faculty. Third, I have done other things besides being a faculty wife. I worked in middle management for 14 years. I have learned a different viewpoint." She stated that she understood the different perceptions of both "workers and administrators." Harnish concluded, "I can see a management point-of-view. There are always pros and cons."

Currently, CLC is debating the issue of whether or not smoking should be banned or curtailed on the campus. Harnish commented, "I oppose a ban on smoking.

The school is also interested in enrollment. I'm afraid a ban on smoking would discourage students, especially the night students. I think there could be smoking and non-smoking areas just like restaurants and airlines."

Mrs. Harnish also praised the record of CLC President John Hunter. She contended, "Hunter has done a lot of good as president. He was a calming influence on the college. The school has remained academically and financially sound during his tenure. President Hunter has not damaged the fine reputation of the school."

Units Hosts Craft Fair

The numerous crafts and food will have been made by the 500 Ladies who are members of the Association.

There will be an exhibit of all kinds of arts and crafts.

Demonstrations will be on going since this is the annual educational as well as a selling show.

A portion of the income goes to 4H program, as well as support for the various programs available to the general Public.

The entrance fee is $1.50 and includes Craft Pattern Book.

Antique Art Work

Upholstering Antiques Special Kick For Halls

"We liked Lake Villa so much that we bought a house in the heart of town and located our business in the back of it," said Darlene Hall.

John and Darlene Hall have been doing custom boats, automotive and furniture upholstery in their business, Upholstery By John, since their start in the industrial complex in 1982.

During the summer, the talented couple are mostly involved in doing car upholstery and convertible tops, as well as boat upholstery plus canvass convertible tops and mooring covers.

During the winter months they turn their attention to couches and chairs which get the strip down treatment, right down to the bare wood.

Springs are checked and carefully retied to guarantee a good finished product.

John's family was involved in the upholstery business all during his growing years and he started picking up the craft at the early age of seven.

Nine years ago he taught that craft to his wife Darlene and the two have been striping, stretching and sewing together ever since.

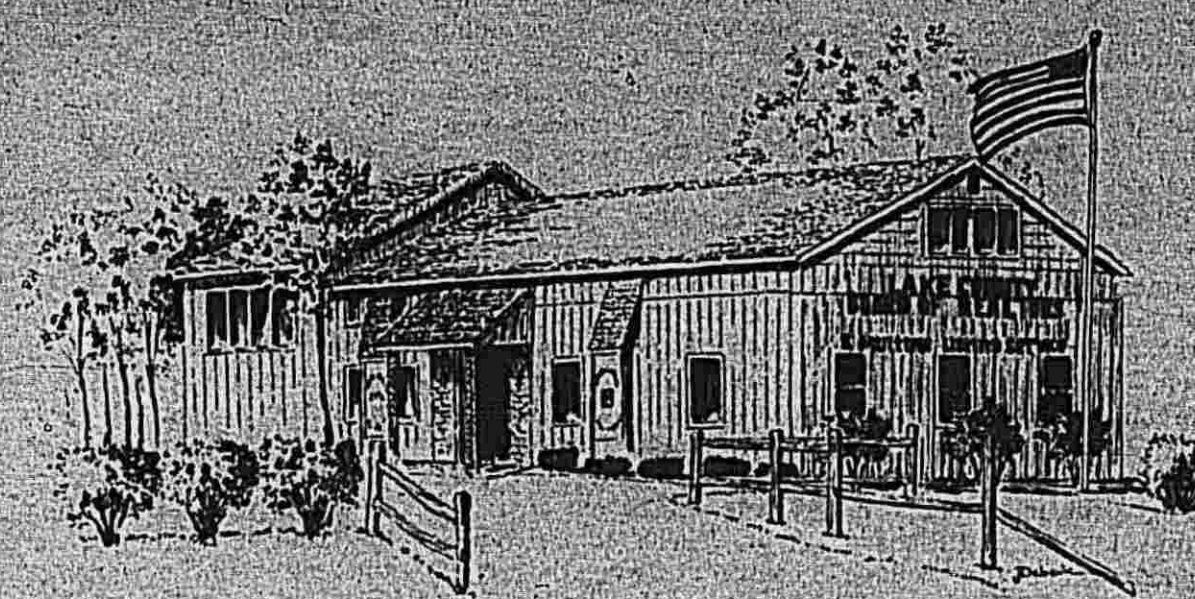

Doing the upholstery for antique cars is a particular kick for the Halls who, after finishing a delicate job on a 1929 Rolls Royce, are now busy redoing the seats of a 1929 Hudson.

Upholstery By John is now located across the street

Spirit And Principles Live On For Board

Although the name has changed and the times have changed, the spirit and principles on which the Lake County Board of Realtors was founded, live on.

"Under all is the land. Upon its wise utilization and widely allocated ownership depend the survival and growth of free institutions and of our civilization." Thus begins the Code of Ethics which governs members of the board, now in its 58th year, with a membership of more than 1,500.

Of 55 similar Realtor Boards throughout Illinois, the Lake County organizations is the fifth largest and growing at a rate which exceeds all others.

The primary purpose of the board, which is structured as a not-for-profit corporation, is to unite those engaged in the real estate profession and further the interest of home and other real property ownership.

Within the area of jurisdiction assigned to it by the National Assn. of Realtors, the board is responsible for promoting and maintaining high standards of professional conduct.

Organized in 1927 as the Waukegan-North Chicago real estate board, fewer than 25 members sustained the organization during its early years. The era from 1956 to the present, however, marked a period of substantial growth.

The strength of the board lies in its membership, which is comprised of people dedicated to serving others. This dedication to service is exemplified by the more than 100 members who serve voluntarily on some 20 committees and task forces which oversee a wide variety of activities ranging from legislative involvement to neighborhood revitalization.

A major factor in the growth of the board has been the phenomenal success of the Multiple Listing Service (MLS). More than 160 individual real estate offices presently participate in the program and each participant firm has computer access to over 4,500 properties currently for sale in Lake County and the services of over 1,350 practitioners.

MLS has proved to be the single most successful medium for bringing buyers and sellers together.

The use of HCG in a weight reduction program was originally researched and developed by Dr. A.T.W. Simeons of Rome, Italy over 30 years ago. Since Dr. Simeons' early work, HCG has been prescribed in Europe for weight reduction in both men and women. The program has been successfully used in the U.S. for the last 15 years.

Indications: HCG is not approved by FDA as safe and effective for weight control. There is no substantial evidence that it increases weight loss beyond that resulting from calorie restriction, that it causes a more attractive "normal" distribution of fat, or that it decreases the hunger and discomfort associated with caloric restricted diets.

Fast Food Means Growth

Fast food chains only come to an area where tremendous growth is expected and that is the predicted future of the Lake Villa-Lindenhurst area as shown by the construction of the new Pizza Hut on Grand Ave. — Photo by Gloria Davis.

Lake Villa-Lindenhurst, Blend Old And New Well

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Lake Villa-Lindenhurst area is made up of three actual municipalities, the Village of Lake Villa, the Village of Lindenhurst and Lake Villa Twp.

All three areas have big plans for growth on the books. The Village of Lake Villa has plans for apartment complexes and a 120-bed nursing care facility pending, while Lindenhurst is growing by leaps and bound both commercially and residentially.

There were 100 new homes built in Lindenhurst in the last year and new retail, fast foods and financial concerns will be banking on Lindenhurst's planned progress.

The new owners of Linden Plaza seem destined to expand, an expansion that started with the enlargement of the Eagle Food Store.

Pizza Hut is busy remodeling and moving

The Village of Lake Villa also has the large Waters Edge Apartment Complex in the works.

Lindenhurst Mayor Bob Ratch, new Lindenhurst Village Administrator Jim Stevens and the rest of the village's officials are in the final stages of developing and distributing a new brochure designed to draw even more business and industrial interests to the area.

A recent survey taken of Lake Villa School Dist. 41 parents showed that the parents were more than pleased with the school system their children attend.

Antioch Community High School and Grayslake Community High School, the two high schools attended by area secondary students, are among the most highly rated in Lake County.

Community Profile

into the old Cindy's Hamburger Restaurant and the State Bank of Antioch has already picked a site for a branch bank on Grand Ave., diagonal from the shopping plaza.

Long-time a local dining haven, R. J.'s Eatery is getting ready to move across Grand Ave. to larger newer quarters and the True Value has new owners.

Rated one of the best in Lake County, or even the State of Illinois, the Lake Villa Rescue Squad, headed by Chief Bill Carew and Pres. Raeann Fuller, is currently involved in plans for a new location for the squad's base station.

Fire Chief Elmer Sheehan and the Lake Villa Fire Dept. is as highly regarded as the rescue squad and its service will be expanded to a degree because of plans to put fire fighting equipment in the new rescue station to serve the area from a central location as well as from the present fire station.

Lake Villa Mayor Joyce Frayer is busy with annexation plans both for Victory Memorial Hospital's nursing care center (with the hospital's new outreach center already operating right in the village) and 840 acres of undeveloped property off of Deep and Grass Lake Rds. (plus 140 already in the village) to be called Cedar Shores, set for both residential and commercial construction.

The area also offers parochial education with Prince of Peace Catholic School located on Rte. 83 and transportation available for Carmel High Schools for Boys and Girls.

There is also available membership in churches of many denominations, Prince of Peace Catholic Church, The Calvary Temple Christian Church on Monaville Rd., The Faith Baptist Church of Lindenhurst, The Lakeland Baptist Church on Grand Ave. in Lake Villa, The Grace Community Church on Granda Blvd, Lake Villa, The Episcopal Church of the Holy Family in Lake Villa Twp., St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst, The Good Shepherd Lutheran Church on Grand Ave. in Lake Villa, The Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ.

The recreational facilities in the Lake Villa-Lindenhurst area are countless and varied between the many parks and beaches as well as the numerous baseball teams offered by the township.

The Lindenhurst Recreation Dept. has something going on at all times including soccer, tennis, and all types of ball teams. Soccer and iceless hockey leagues add to the variety of sports offered.

There are many men's and women's clubs with the Lions, Jaycees, VFW and Lindenhurst Men's and Women's Club among the most active.

Home Improvements Facts

The home improvement industry is booming this year. Many Lake County residents have decided to postpone a move and opt for sprucing up their present quarters.

Likewise, many homeowners are tackling home improvement projects themselves rather than hiring professionals in order to save from 30 to 60 percent in costs.

"But whether you hire a professional or do-it-yourself, there are certain things you should keep in mind if you're remodeling with an eye to enhancing your home's resale value," says Dorothy Fettingner, President-Elect of the Lake County Board of Realtors.

First, you can't expect a dollar-for-dollar return on every improvement you make. Some improvements have a high percentage of recovery costs; others only have nominal value on resale of the home.

Second, it's possible to over-improve property in terms of the value of neighboring homes. Should your improvement mean that the home is worth far more than other homes in the neighborhood, it would be difficult to gain that new value in the sale of the home.

One dollar spent on remodeling adds only about 50 cents to the resale price of a house, according to home improvement surveys. Some improvements add nothing at all.

While modernizing a kitchen or bathroom is almost certain to reap maximum return in real value, such outdoor improvements as adding storm windows, aluminum siding or new shingles offer little return.

Before remodeling, you and your family should decide what repairs are imperative and what improvements are merely desirable. Keep in mind that what seems a necessary improvement to you may not seem to the family that might one day buy your home.

And above all, the most important factor in the sale price of a home is the quality of the neighborhood. If the average price of a home in your neighborhood is $70,000 and your house costs $65,000, you may recover most of the $5,000 remodeling project. But a $10,000 improvement venture might price you out of the market for homes in that neighborhood.

"Before remodeling as well as before putting your house up for sale, why not consult a Realtor? A Realtor is your best source of market information on neighborhood growth patterns, current housing trends and features that make a home saleable," said Fettingner.

Name Janet Lewis Manager

Janet Lewis has been named as manager for the Lakeland Apartments for senior citizens. Janet and her husband, Lew, are residents of the apartment building at 25 Ernest Ave.

A party in Janet's honor as well as to celebrate birthdays was held Sept. 25. The residents heard the music of "The Happy Cliff Dwellers," a kitchen band organized by Lew.

The residents' next party will be Oct. 30. It will be a Hobo Stew dinner and a combination Halloween-Birthday party.

The residents thank the Lions Club for loaning folding chairs for the party and the American Legion Auxiliary for the flag it donated for the front of the building.

Com Ed Top Taxpayer

Commonwealth Edison pays the highest percentage of revenue for state and local taxes of any Illinois electric utility and the third highest percentage of the 25 largest electric utilities in the nation, a study by the company has disclosed.

Edison's percentage of state and local tax burdens was 23.8 percent greater than that of the second-ranked Illinois electric utility. These tax payments

2.03 percent. The survey was compiled from data supplied to Edison by each company.

Taxes on utility services themselves are becoming increasingly popular with northern Illinois municipalities as a substitute for property taxation. During the past year, six municipalities in Edison's service territory have instituted utility taxes, bringing to 108 the number which employ such a tax.

are reflected in customers' electricity bills. In Chicago, four separate city and state taxes account for 12.76 percent of customers' electricity bills. In many suburban and outlying areas, three different taxes total 9.49 percent of monthly bills.

Edison paid 11.81 percent of its revenues, $582.3 million, in state and local taxes for 1984. The highest utility among those surveyed paid 15.77 percent, the lowest

Sorting Out The Chaff In Records You Need

Consumers and business people should keep good financial records to protect themselves against future tax audits and other unforeseen paperwork headaches.

No one wants a missing document to cost them money, but being buried under a sea of paper is no pleasure cruise either.

Every American — from factory workers to top corporate executives — should keep track of their financial records. You never know when the Internal Revenue Service will call you in for an audit.

Plagued by bursting file cabinets, The Meyers Report asked accounting experts what papers we could safely store in the circular file. Here is what we found:

Retaining records is important for individuals and even more so for the small businessman and large corporations.

"The IRS isn't the only issue," said Abeles. "You need records for business and legal purposes, and if you're going to sell the business, you need records for prospective buyers."

Still, some documents can be relegated to the circular file. Here is a list of documents and the recommended length of time each should be kept by businesses and individuals:

- Correspondence. General correspondence can be tossed, flushed or otherwise eliminated after two years. Correspondence that deals with licensing, business traffic and purchases should be kept five years.

- Production correspondence should stay on file seven years. Any correspondence on legal or tax-related issues are PERMANENT records.

- Purchasing and sales documents. These should be kept three years.

- Receiving and shipping records. Keep them four years.

- Property and equipment records. Purchase, sales and depreciations records should be permanent.

- Insurance documents. Keep expired policies four years. Accident reports and fire inspection reports should be saved for five years.

Keep business safety reports and group disability records for seven years. All records of settled claims should be permanently retained.

- Accounting records. Keep trial monthly balances for three years. Bank statements and deposit slips can be trashed when more than four years old. You should expect to be hit with a service charge if you ever want copies of your statements.

Retain payroll records four years. Expense reports and subsidiary ledgers should be saved for five years.

Keep checks, payroll time reports and earnings records and voucher payment records for seven years. But audit reports, financial statements and general ledgers and journals are permanent accounting records.

- Corporate records: Save expired mortgages, notes and leases for seven years. Deeds and easements, labor contracts and other business agreements should become part of your permanent records. Bylaws, the corporate charter and minute books also should be among the permanent records.

- Other permanent records. Keep all tax returns and supporting documents as well as capital stock and bond records patents, copyrights and trademark registrations, retirement and pension records.

THE WEEK AT A GLANCE: Nationwide, the average interest rate on conventional 30-year mortgages with 20 percent down payments held steady at 12.23 percent. Adjustable-rate mortgages with annual rate adjustments fell to 9.97 percent last week.

This week, 36-month new-car loans averaged 13.31 percent at financial institutions across the country, while rates on 48-month auto loans averaged 13.07 percent.

Garage Sale Successful

The first garage sale for Century 21 Leech & Assoc. of Lindenhurst, was a great success, broker Terry De Noma announced.

Over 75 families participated in the event. "We plan a spring sale and expect even more participation," De Noma said.

He announced a third straight record-breaking year for Century 21 Leech and Assoc. "This year has been a success in more ways than one," he said. "Our sales have been our highest and our service to Lindenhurst is a source of pride."

Century 21 Leech & Assoc. of Lindenhurst's Fourth Annual "Great Pumpkin Give Away" is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 19.

Porter Applauds

Congressman John Porter (R-10th) announced that Lake County has been selected as one of four Illinois participants in the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) "Project Self-Sufficiency" program.

HUD solicited proposals from units of local government nationwide (including counties) to join in the project, which encourages development of innovative programs to enable unemployed or underemployed low-income single parents to become economically self-sufficient through cooperative efforts of the public and private sectors.

"This program allows individuals to develop the skills and resources to achieve economic independence, without resorting to fixed entitlements that in fact discourage such development," Porter said. I am pleased that Lake County is in the forefront of this local initiative."

Project Self-Sufficiency calls for local governments to offer services such as housing assistance, child care, adult transportation, and job training and placement. As a participant, Lake County will also coordinate and implement local public and private resources.

The Meyers Report

Economic forecaster Gary S. Meyers has been a lecturer and consultant to major financial institutions, government analysts, real estate developers and daily newspapers throughout the nation for the past 16 years. Readers are invited to submit comments and questions for possible use as subjects for future columns. Write Gary S. Meyers & Associates, 2200 S. Main St., Suite 106, Lombard, Ill. 60148.

While a business is always open to audit by the Internal Revenue Service, individual filers can throw away most records three years after the filing date.

"You should always keep your returns, but you can get rid of your supporting materials after three years, because the federal government can't come back and challenge your tax returns," said Randy Abeles, a tax manager with Chicago office of Laventhol & Horwath, a large accounting firm.

Abeles said the government left itself two loopholes in this regulation — both designed to nail tax cheaters. One involves understatement of income, the other concerns tax fraud.

"If an individual is suspected of declaring less income than he earned, the IRS can challenge his return at any time within six years of the due date," said Abeles. (By IRS definition, a 25 percent or greater understatement of income is considered a serious offense, subject to hefty penalties.)

"If the government suspects you of tax fraud, all of your tax returns are open to examination," said Abeles.

However, businesses come under much more IRS scrutiny. It seems as though every piece of paper that comes into the office has to be filed, just in case Uncle Sam comes knocking at the door.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) This is a good time to check all things mechanical before sudden breakdowns break up your best-made plans. This is especially important for drivers. Give your car a complete road test soon.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Things go awry but patience, plus expert assistance, soon help you make up for lost time. Loved one needs more understanding. Be less judgmental and more sentimental as you offer assistance.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Avoid involvement in workplace plots. Machinations can mash your ambitions to an unrecognizable pulp. Stay above the fray and you won't have to say, "I'm sorry."

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 20) Tender more tenderness towards your loved ones. A tendency towards toughness is misunderstood. Love is the only thing that you can never give too much of to anyone.

Leo (Jul. 21-Aug. 22) Having trouble with your nightly catnaps? Could be you have second thoughts about that recent decision. It's not too late to make changes. Call or write soon.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sept. 22) The task-task tasks you just can't finish may be your way of avoiding the real challenge ahead. Don't let self-doubt keep you from making that first big move.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Offer explanations that have the ring of truth and you won't have to worry about being wrung out emotionally. Allies rush to your assistance. Give them the facts.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Make a strategic retreat. Reassess your assets. When you feel you're ready to compete again, do it with full confidence that you can, indeed, win your goals.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Fritters are for apples and corn, not for time. Stop frittering away your opportunities for advancement. Tackle the challenge now and you soon start earning rewards.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Not everything you hoped for comes through this week. But don't give up. Sometimes you just have to wait a little longer for things of value. Make that postponed call.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Speed up your efforts. The time to delay is past. Much depends on how quickly you can do the job well. Have confidence in your skills. They'll pay-off for you.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Romantic situations appear to be somewhat confusing but that shouldn't keep you from keeping your promises to a loved one. Your loyalty leads the way to a solution.
